The resolution was adopted since the record of the training of chimical flowers on the grading yesterday, and in secret acceptance of the victory of their raid on "seal" inducers on the grading yesterday, and in secret acceptance of the victory of their raid on "seal" inducers on the grading yesterday, and in secret acceptance of the purington & Missouri ratiroad depots and offices, and the Daily Hearld office, and at one time decided upon such outrace, but subsequently reconsidered it. The railway company has its offices and depot barricaded and watched confight, and the city is in a said of condeteable unessiness. Authorities are preparing to cope with the strikers but will probably wait for arrival of thoops before resumption of work in attempted. A meeting was held by strikers at which they developed the policy of representing to state authorities that there was no approached to a collision.

Onanc, March 10.—To-morrow morning two companies of regulars, about 100 non, and a howtizer and gating gau from Fort Omahs, see to be stationed at the D. & M. freight depot grounds to propose the strikers at the B. & M. graders from violence of the mode and so-called above union. The South and Central American ropublies trade much more largely with fingland than with the United States. When they do trade with the latter, the tariff prevents reciprocity. of imports and exports, so that the balance of trade has often to be met by an export of gold. But this foreign trade has been practically destroyed by the tariff, for the English, French and Germans can manufacture fifty per cent. cheaper. The carpet mills have been more profitable than the woolen mills, and certainly some visited by me were producing excellent products both in material and design. But the consumption is internal, for during the year 1880 the value of less than £2000 was exported from the United States, while Great Britain experted £1,-

We understand Col. Morrow has made application for the return of officers to his regiment. It is the return of officers to his regiment. It is the same account the important enterprise of manufacturing with the west Folia, washington and selective.

Nine line officers out of thirty—almost one-third—are absent from the regiment. Several of these officers have been absent for grears. Lieut Brailey, on duty in the war department, for example, has never joined his regiment, though he has been at tached to it for nearly 12 years. The result of this is a large amount of extra labor for officers where main with their command and perform their legitimated duties. The officers of his own regiment from the fullest sympathy with the colonel in his effort to bring back to the regimental fold flees stray lambs, and we should thin his efforts would be seconded by the officers higher in command.
